

I write to voice my disapproval with the proposed media ownership changes. Allowing a few to control the media will place too much power in the hands of these gatekeepers. Dissenting opinions must have a venue on which to voice their opinions. The networks will survive, and even if they don't, something else will emerge and take the networks' place. Vote against the proposed changes. Vote for the first amendment.